PROFESSOR HY BERMAN was, by most accounts, the face of public history in Minnesota for decades—a popular university professor, political observer, and familiar presence on PBS’s Almanac. Here readers encounter the Berman audiences and students loved, telling stories that are a close-up view of Minnesota history and a conversational self-portrait of a man often in the middle of that history.

“JAY WEINER HAS DONE A GREAT SERVICE to both history and letters in elegantly weaving this autobiography from the brilliant, vivid miscellany of writings and interviews that Berman left behind. Anyone interested in labor history, higher education, the Jewish Left, and so many other subjects in Berman’s questing mind will be grateful for this memoir.”

—Samuel G. Freedman, author of Letters to a Young Journalist
